We may not have known each other for very long and we may have gone our separate ways after Basic, but I'll never forget the Bonds we built during our time at F Co. 3-13. We were strangers brought together in strange place. In that short amount of time we spent at basic I came to see those around me as family. Brothers. Sisters. 40 Rounds Brother! We'll meet again where the trail ends.

“ My precious Grandson, I have loved you from the moment I saw you. You have been the joy of my life. I take comfort in knowing that you knew how very much we love you. You are, and forever will be my heart. We watched Winnie the Pooh, Winnie-na-pooh. Then Peter Pan as you watch your shadow dance across the wall and we said Bang A Rang Pan. Your smile was my sunshine. Your love was unconditional. You have always made me laugh with your wit and sense of humor. You never asked for anything, and received what we gave with gratitude. You made your own way. Your heart was kind as you shared yourself with others. I would have gladly taken your place. Now I must wait to see you again. Your laughter will ring in my ears, your love will remain safely tucked away in my heart. Your smile will be what I see, and the amazing person you are will live on in my heart until we meet again my precious love. Grandma- MeMaw

“ Please view the obituary site and leave a message for our grandson Alexander Johnson . Our hearts are so broken, and our grief is overwhelming, it is unspeakable. He was my absolute heart. Our lives will never be the same. To all who have posted on his face book page, you will never know how much it has ment to us to see your love and kindness poured out for him. I can't imagine that he knew how much he was cared for by all. Your shared memories and love for Alex has helped to ease our pain. My precious angel is with my Mother now and is at peace. If you can attend any of his services I know he would be honored. Thank each of you. From our heart to yours.

Alex Aunt Rhonda and I will forever remember your laughter and your brite and beautiful smile. You seemed to always have a trick up your sleeve or always having a smile on your face. Aunt Rhonda told me last night when we had family get togethers she loved watching you because she didn't want to miss anything. Just know you are loved more than words can say. You had a kind heart with the willingness to help at anytime you were asked. Alex we love you so much and when you greet grandma tell her we love and miss her too. Rest in Peace nephew your job here is done. Thank you for all the happy years tho short I wouldn't trade them for anything. Love Uncle Buddy&Aunt Rhonda.

“ Alex,
I don't believe that we've ever met. I know that you are loved and will be missed by all who knew you. I'm sure that you're in heaven now with Jesus and all of your loved ones that have gone before you. My prayer is for those loved ones that you left behind. My God give them comfort and peace.
I salute you Sir and thank you for your sacrifice and service to our great country.

“ Alex,
I don't have too many words right now, but since your passing I haven't stopped thinking of you. Anytime you were around, there was always laughter and joy. When you told me several years ago that you were joining the Army I was so proud of you and what you had become over the years. I watched you recover from a car accident and surgery and knew you had the will to fight. May you RIP with God now and we will see you one day.
Much Love,

“ Alex,
My memories of you center around your Grandmother and Grandfather. Every time they spoke of you it was obvious how much in love with you they are.

I marveled at how quickly you grew between the few times I got to see you, and was proud of the young man you became. Your parents and grandparents did a fine job of raising you.

I may never know why things are the way they are, but I do know that you were a fine young man and well loved. You will be missed by everyone who had the honor of knowing you.

I pray you are in the comforting arms of your Great-Grandma and all the other family members gone before you.

“ Alex,
My memories of you are few and far between, but what they contain most prominently is your smile. I rest assured that you are with Jesus and I will have the chance one day to hug your neck and tell you how proud I am to have you as a cousin.

“ Sweet precious Alex you were a light in a sometimes dark world. Our world will never be as bright with you not in it. It seems everyone who knew you loved you. You were the heart of your family and when you left us you took part of our hearts. I know you are in the presence of Jesus right now and if we could see how happy you are our hearts would be overflowing with joy. We thank you with everything in us for your brave service to our country. Your willingness to sacrifice to keep this nation free for this we will be eternally grateful. We will see you again soon, our parting is only temporary. Then we will be together forever throughout all eternity and will never ever again feel the pain of being without you. We love you precious Alex. - Mike & Angela Davis
