Beautiful tribute to Candy. My main memory of Candy is her and my sister played mini minors at Winston ballfield and she was this tall skinny little girl pitching a ball faster than she was big !! RIP Candy

“Candy... what exactly can I say girl! You were the little sister that I never had and I loved you dearly and always will. I will always remember that familiar Candy smirk on your face and wish that I could just once more hear one of your hyperactive mumbling rants about something that bothered you. It was so cute and adorable even though half the time I had no idea what you were trying to say to me. You certainly had A beautiful heart of gold and were such honest and open person. I pray you have found your way to be with the Lord in a much better place than this often evil world we live in.

To your beautiful daughter and grandson pray that time will help heal these wounds quickly. I lost my mother at an even younger age although under very similar circumstances and it will not be easy but please reach out to those that love you at any time you need it. Do not try as I did to deal with it completely on my own.

Faye and Hugh, no parent should have to bury their baby before they go themselves. Just throw your love to each in your family as much as you can because we all know that their days could end in tomorrow.

My dear Skyla and Susan, I know they are just words but I love each of you and will be praying for you. Hurt is just unimaginable and I am here to talk or a shoulder to cry on whenever you may need it. Just as I wish I could turn the clock back to last August before my daughter's tragedy struck, I wish I could do the same a week ago for your dear sister. God bless each of you as well as all of us, as I pray we will someday all meet by his side.
