“ So very sorry to hear of Ann's passing. She will never suffer with sickness again. I haven't seen her since she moved from Indiana, but we had lots of memories together while we were sister-in-laws and raising our kids together. She was a very good person and a very good friend. The Lord has wrapped his loving arms around you and taken you Home.

“ Ann was one of God's children who quietly touched the lives of everyone around her. She never looked for any recognition, never wanted any spotlight, but the impact that she had on this world for good will continue for generations. The lives she helped shape teaching children in Sunday School, ministering to young couples and sharing God's love with everyone she knew, will continue to create ripples as those individuals blessed by her continue to bless others. It is hard for us to understand why we have to lose someone like Ann who meant so much to so many people, but I have to believe that even in this time of sorrow for Ann's family and friends, God continues with us. There is nothing I can say that will take away the pain that I know the family is feeling right now, but I pray that God will grant you all the comfort and peace that only His presence can bring. I will miss Ann's physical presence here with us, but I will treasure the memories of her warmth, her humor and her love. My life is better because I was blessed to be able to share a small part of it with Ann Craven.

“ Russell, David and Jaime, I feel so Blessed to have been a part of your family in Ann's home going to see Jesus. Ann was my mom when my mom passed away she brought joy to my life when I needed it the most. I know you are hurting now because she is not with you, but that is us being selfish. She is happy Talking with Her one true Father whom she loves so much. I feel such joy knowing she is happy and pain free. and she is up in heaven helping Jesus and watching over you and me. My heart goes out to you and your family and I Love You Guys, Misty “ Losing a loved one is the most painful experience we could ever have. My heart goes out to the family. May you find comfort in your cherished memories, and in knowing that God is close to the broken heart (Psalms 34:18). Our sincere sympathy to all of you.
