Aubrey Hope Hutson^[1]_{SEP}

March 26, 2014 - March 18, 2025

With deep sorrow, we announce the passing of our beloved Aubrey Hope Hutson, who was born on March 26, 2014, and brightened the world from the moment she arrived. Aubrey was the perfect balance of all things—both a girly girl and an athletic All Star, embodying the best traits of everyone and everything. She had a deep love for music, dancing, softball, singing, drawing, Disney, shopping, and anything that sparkled or shined.

Aubrey's strength and courage were unmatched. She faced life's challenges with grace, always staying positive and living each day to the fullest, no matter the obstacles she encountered.

Her love for those around her was unwavering, and she always gave her heart to her family and friends. Aubrey had an eye for fashion and style, always dressing in the most fabulous outfits. Her unique sense of style matched her one-of-a-kind personality, and she truly was perfect in every definition of the word.

Aubrey lived life with a radiance that could light up any room, leaving a lasting impression on all who knew her. Aubrey was a force of nature—a whirlwind of passion, love, athleticism, artistry, and talent. Like a canvas painted with every vibrant color imaginable, she was a gift from the heavens, a precious soul who made the world a better place simply by being in it.

Aubrey is lovingly remembered by her family, including her mother, Lindsey Hutson; father, Rob Hutson; sisters, Emmalyn, Olivia, Faith, and "Jordan"; and her grandparents, Sherry Paniello, Robert Hutson, Barbara and Mark Tolar, and Renee and Doug Payne. She is also cherished by her great-grandparents, Vivian and Billy Payne.

In honor of Aubrey's vibrant spirit, her family asks that you remember her with love, and cherish the memories of her joy, laughter, and the light she brought into all our lives. Aubrey will forever be in our hearts, a shining star that will never dim.

Please wear prom attire, Disney attire or anything fancy like Aubrey would love.

Our angel on earth is now an angel in heaven. In lieu of flowers please continue to Aubrey's Gifts of Hope. This fund is set up to help with final expenses, and then we will be using the rest to help with establishing the 501c3 in her honor so that we may continue to live like she would want. We will dedicate our time and resources to giving other kids going through it the gifts that help them get through their treatments: toys and experiences. We will keep her legacy alive.

“ I didn't know Aubrey personally. but I followed her journey on this Earth through facebook for quite a few months. This little girl is no doubt is making the Angel Smile. She was a wonderful, loving, energetic child that refused to give up. And she did bring joy and hope to many people's lives. She touched many hearts, which was obvious. I pray that her family, friends and extended family find peace. They are a strong family with wonderful kids. I am positive that Aubrey is in heaven right now with God. She is one of God's true gifts.

I only know you from people I know that shared prayer request for your precious daughter. Her life here was a gift for everyone one who came to know her. If Aubrey could talk to us now, I know she'd be saying something like, I'm not sick anymore, I'm not suffering now, and she's wearing a smile that will never fade from her beautiful face. She's more alive than we can even imagine, and someday you'll get to be with her again.

“ Dearest Lyndsi, Rob & family;
Our hearts are deeply saddened that Aubrey had to go, too soon. We have been praying for you all constantly, for god to send you help to get thru tmrw and the rest of your lives.

Aubrey has left behind such a sparkle in everybody's life, near and far, and the whole world will forever feel the effects of having to let her go down here. But oh what a beautiful , sweet, dancing angel she is now. I can just envision that big smile of hers, and how relieved she must feel to no longer be sick. Just think, Granny Geneva is in heaven with her right now, getting to hear all her exciting story's of all her adventures she's been on these past few years. There's truly no words to ease your mind, I know, but you all are two of the strongest parents on this earth. We are sorry we wasn't able to travel to FI. We love you all, your babies, Aunt Barb&Mark, and Doug&Renee. Sending everybody our prayers&love. &What a beautifully written eulogy about her. - "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith," 2 Timothy 4:7

“ I remember meeting Aubrey for the first time along with her sisters. I saw Rob wearing a bracelet which said Hope for Aubrey and asked what it was for. After Rob & Lyndsey explained, I was moved to ask for a bracelet too in support of Aubrey and her fight. I have been following her ever since and fell in love with her beauty and courage. I got to travel with her vicariously through Facebook and watched her FB lives, as she smiled and enjoyed talking to her fans and loved ones. I always thought she was the most ravishing beautiful redhead I ever saw, till I met Olivia and saw Faith. I love this family and I am grateful I got to meet and know Aubrey. “ Aubrey stole my heart when I saw her dancing at Epcot to the Harmonious show in the spring of 2022.

My family had been grieving the loss of my daughter, Katie, to cancer for the past 10 months. She had dreamed of going to DisneyWorld so we went for the first time in her honor.

When I looked around during the show, I saw Aubrey with the familiar look of a girl fighting a cancer battle and SHE WAS DANCING! She is a beautiful dancer. Her entire body exuded joy and it spread to everyone around her. It brought tears to my eyes and I felt Katie's spirit there with us. After the show I told Aubrey how much I liked her dancing and she gave me a bracelet that read TeamAubreyHope.

When I returned home, I looked her up and have been following her journey and praying for your family ever since.

Aubrey is so good now. She is dancing in heaven with Jesus.

I am praying for God to bring your family peace. I am so sad that you have to feel this pain. ❤️🙏❤️

“ My heart hurts for you all. I am so very, very sorry. The strength and determination that Aubrey had, is something most adults will never have. The smile on her face, even in the midst of pain, the light in her eyes, even in the midst of the unknown, shows the strength she gained from having such a strong support system, her family. I don't know what to say to make it easier, because there are no words to heal this pain, but I do know that she will forever live in the hearts of her family, her in person friends, her online friends and anyone who ever crossed her path. I pray for peace and comfort that can only come from God, and I pray you know we are all Team Aubrey Hope, forever.

“My heart is shattered today. I prayed for Aubrey as if she were my own daughter, and I know firsthand the pain of watching a child battle cancer. There are no words to describe the sorrow of losing such a bright, beautiful soul. But what I can say with certainty is that Aubrey had the best parents any child could ever ask for. Lindsey and Rob gave her a life full of love, joy, and unwavering devotion. She was surrounded not only by their love but by the love of hundreds of people who were touched by her spirit, her smile, and her incredible courage.

Pediatric cancer is cruel, and no child should ever have to endure it. Yet, even in the face of it, Aubrey showed us what it meant to live with strength, grace, and an unbreakable spirit. She was a warrior, a shining light who left an imprint on every heart she touched.

But this is not the end. Aubrey's story does not end in sorrow, because we know that love never dies. She has entered into eternal life, where there is no more pain, no more suffering—only joy, light, and the embrace of our Heavenly Father. She now dances among the angels, her spirit free, her beauty eternal. And though our hearts ache today, we hold on to the hope that one day, we will see her again, radiant and whole, in the presence of God.

Aubrey, you will forever be loved, forever remembered, and forever 10. No more pain sweet girl, rest and rejoice in our Father arms.
