MOM!.....MOM!.....MOM! These are the words she heard most often, the words that brought her the most joy, the words that meant "I need you", "I love you". She was our protector and our solice . She was critical yet proud, and even when we were wrong she would make excuses for us. She loved to laugh and wasn't afraid to cry. She was our mother and our father, and trust me you always knew which role she was playing! She loved us all and the world will never be the same withoutMOM. Belmar is predeceased by a son, Cory Dalton. She is survived by: (Brother) Lamar Hampton (Sons and daughter) Woodrow Kevin Dalton, Curtis Edward Dalton and Colleen Elizabeth Dalton, (Grandchildren) Mathew Wade Dalton, Amanda Faith Dalton, Chloe Brooke Dalton.
