“ I will miss my very special stylish green-eyed Aunt who loved her family,golf, friends, making people laugh, but most of all she always was in my corner with her advise and love and never once forgot my birthday. God blessed me growing up living just 5 houses away. My Mom and Aunt Betty were more than just sisters,they were best friends their entire lives and the team of Lou and Bets (endearing names for each other) now are back together in Heaven. My aunt was a role model to me for her civic involvement ,compassion and her uncanny way of maintaining friendships. I already miss our phone conversations and advise that always included family updates, laughter and encouragement that kept me going no matter what I was facing. My vision is that of course you are in Heaven with God and laughing with Mom but it brings me peace knowing that you are happy again dancing with Uncle Bob to "Moon River".
Until we meet again in Heaven, I'll say goodbye just like our phone chats : I love you more than anything Aunt Betty and you'd say I love you too Cinny (loved she called me that)
