I have thought of Bonnie many of times, especially at Walmart, when I couldn't get a shelf in, she would say "BAMBI" and get that shelf in ! We had a lot of laughs together along with some tears. She loved the song Wooly Bully, there was no way in hell you were going to get her not to dance ! You couldn't help not to love Bonnie. She is a very special and rare type of person you would never forget. I will miss her, but I'll never forget her, till we meet again! Love you Bonnie, Sharon

Many years ago, I went down the road to play with a little Boy, both of us about the same age, In a dirt pile, in front of the house they were building, and started to get late when this prettiest little Girl came and told Jess its supper time, and he said I be tommrow if you come by, yeah, I bring my Bike, as he left to go to Mrs Long hose the little Girl said, ,I am Bonnie, , I am ,Jerry, she said , you better get home to your supper, I said, An,t got none, and she look sad, but the next day, Jess said, Bonnie did not eat much supper last nite, something you said?, Oh ,she was worried I miss my supper, to get home, and said , Don,t have no supper , or much home that matters,At such a young age and a heart of Gold to think of another Kid, and to brother her soul from eating her supper, I love Little Sis, and miss you, Love your Brother at Heart, Jerry
