

Brenda K. Copeland

November 22, 1957 - October 10, 2020

Brenda K. Copeland, 62, passed away on Oct 10, 2020 in Thomasville, Ga. She was born in Lakeland, Fla. on Nov 22, 1957. She married Mike Copeland in 1973, in Dothan, Ala. She moved back and forth between Lakeland and her family's home place in Butcher Holler, Boones Camp, Ky., near Paintsville, close to the birthplace of her cousin, Loretta Lynn. She was named after country singer Brenda Lee. She loved fishing and dancing. She also enjoyed traveling, whether to other states, or anywhere her heart guided her.

She was preceded in passing by her Father, Bill "Willie" Butcher; her Mother, Virginia (Jones) Dawson; and her Brother, Bill Butcher Jr.

She was a graduate of Lakeland Senior High. She held various jobs, and enjoyed being a homemaker the most.

Brenda is survived by her husband of 47 years, Mike Copeland; her Son, Mike Copeland Jr, and wife Robbin; her Grandson, Mike Copeland III, proudly serving his country with the 82nd Airborne Division, and wife Marisa; and her Great Grandson, Christian Michael Copeland; and 2 siblings, Anna (Butcher) Daniels; and Myra Butcher, as well as numerous nieces and nephews. She was exceptionally proud of her family above all else, and will be sorely and deeply missed by all.

She is interred at Oak Hill Burial Park in Lakeland alongside her Mother.

*Mom,
For all the love and saving grace you bestowed upon me I Thank You from the bottom of my soul.
You were and will always continue to be my beacon of light when I cannot see.
I love you Mom and I will cherish all that you have given me always.
You are the Foundation and my Roots that supports me.
I love you and I miss you Mom.*

You were my second mother and never made me feel like any less than your other son. Knowing you made our lives better. Your spirit carries on through anyone who knew you. I love you and I will hold you in my heart for the rest of my life.

Brenda words can't even Express the feeling I am shattered with right now. You were the right I was the left as we moved through the world most of the time. If someone seen me you were there And vice versa .I will always be there for Mike Michael and Robyn if and when they need me. I believe right now your up in the heavens praising God and all of glorious wonders with MaMa and Jr. When my turn comes you better be ready cause I'm gonna run straight to you and momma ..the 3 amigos as they called us I am never saying goodbye just see you soon and as we hang the phone up or hugged and always said talk later I love you
