“ Where do I start I have so many favorites memories of Carl we meet of registration day in middle school he smiled at me and I blushed and hid behind my mom. I told her I hope he was in my classes and he was. He was my first crush and teammate in special Olympics playing basketball and soccer in middle school basketball was his favorite. And later on softball outside of school. He loved drawing and kid rock was his favorite artist. He loved riding his motorcycle and fishing , cooking and our dog Hercules. We got married in April 2010 and even though we got a divorce we loved each other very much and stayed in touch throughout the years every chance we had. He loved and cared and respected everyone he met. Carl until we are together again in heaven I promise to make you proud.
