“ Been thinking about Carol the past few weeks. Even talked to people at church about how we were drawn together with our diagnoses and health issues, I moved in with my daughter in 1999 and Carol came by just to see if I was ok. That was the last time I saw her, Just looked her up and found the obituary, So sorry for the family's loss, I will continue to have fond memories of us helping each other through that time, I am still taking treatments,

“ I will always remember her Birthday and Christmas gifts....I always tried hard to make sure the gifts arrived on time....I always sent a card with a bunch nonsense written in it....and it always had cash... She always let me know how she loved the cash and didn't pay attention to the nonsense written within the card...the last Birthday card she sent me was outstanding and I have it framed hanging on the wall....I will certainly miss her tremendously...
