“Clay was an amazing man and came from an amazing family. He was loving and caring and one to call a friend. He was always positive and willing to lend a hand. How precious it is to know that he is healed and spending time with Jesus. Ps 116:15 says, "Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His saints". He will be missed here yet he will remain in our hearts always. May God grant precious memories and comfort to those closest to him and to those of us who knew him as a friend.

“ I have known Clay since 9th grade. He was one of those guys that always had a smile and was good with most every group in our school. He did not know a stranger. He was so big hearted and wonderfully kind that you could not help but love him. Even after he graduated high school, he was in touch with many of our high school friends. His humor was awesome and his love of bacon was renowned. He will be missed by all who knew him. Rest in peace my sweet friend.

“ True friends love unconditionally- Clay you were always my true friend and to many others. What a privilege it was to have you in my life for sooo many years. I will always be grateful for the quiet times sitting by the bonfires figuring out life together. You always wanted our school friendships with our classmates to last a lifetime- with all of your effort they have! We will carry on your legacy of get togethers and reunions, just as you would have wanted. Save me a seat by that glorious bonfire in heaven until we meet again. Thank you for being being a blessing to so many people- Love you Buddy

“Clay, you were a salt of the earth, trustworthy, solid friend. Thank you for dragging me out when I needed a friend and having my back when I 100% needed it. Thank You for the Funny Quotes you Filled us with and keeping in touch and being that friend no matter how much time had passed it was good good to see or talk to. Thanks for always showing up and calling back and lending a hand when possible. We didn't really know each other in High School but I sure knew you as a friend in our later years. We had some good times and laughs over the years, but most of all thank you for being One of the Truly Good Guys. A Man. A friend. A No BS, Christian American, Flag Flying, Good Ole Boy from a Small Town. You knew how to make others Smile and Laugh even when going through your own personal struggles. I will see you again my Friend 😊 Much .Love to your family and friends. I know You have left a huge hole for those that knew you.
I'll definitely miss this bond fires and think of you every fall when there is a hint of chill in the air and not getting that ride in the infamous car.

Clay a wonderful co worker good friend an person loved him dearly

Sluggo - August 25, 2023 at 06:40 PM

I really don't know how to get through a week without talking to you. No matter what you were always there for me. The most kind and generous man I've ever known. I know you are with your parents, Barbie, and Jason. I just want you to know you were loved and cherished as a true friend.

What we planned in October, I'm going to do it. If you and Barbie show up in my dreams or just want to visit, you know you are welcome.

Until we meet again my dear friend.
