“ I remember my father buying truck from Cy at Buddy Greg RV when me and my brother were 10 years old. Thinking oh my gosh these things are amazing and Dad would always tell us to stay out of them and Cy would let us run wild. As Dad semi retired we started dealing with Cy over the last 15 years. He is a great man and will be truly missed. RIP Cy. The Lovering families

“ Cy & Debbie were our new neighbors back in 1988, and we thought the world of these two new friends from North Carolina. We enjoyed so many great memories over the years during our friendship. Then they left for Lakeland, we missed them terribly. If you met these two, you liked them from the beginning. And, I know there have been a huge number of people in and out of their lives, over the years. Cy will truly be missed by friends, clients, business associates, family and most of all his Debbie, Davey & Chris. Cy Whisnant has left the mark of a great man, he was loved by many.
