

Cynthia "Cindi" Dean

May 27, 1962 - December 17, 2024

Cynthia "Cindi with an I" Dean, a devoted wife, daughter, mother, and grandmother, passed away on December 17th in Lakeland, Florida. Born in Plant City, FL., she made her home in Lakeland and Lake Alfred, FL., where her kindness and giving spirit touched countless lives.

Cindi found her calling as a nurse practitioner, dedicating her career to caring for others with unwavering compassion. Most recently, she served at Lake Gibson Village Assisted Living community in Lakeland, where her contagious smile and commitment to her patients left an indelible mark on all those she cared for and worked alongside. Her life was a testament to the power of service and the beauty of selfless giving.

A lover of life's adventures, Cindi loved to travel and created treasured memories along the way with those she loved. Above all else she cherished the time spent with her family. Her three grandsons; Owen, Reed, and Brandt Judino held a special place in heart and were an immense source of joy in her life.

Cindi is survived by her husband, James Dean; her daughter, Charity Judino; her beloved grandsons; her father, Woodrow Parks; and her sisters, Cindy Daniels and Sandy Glenn; Along with many nieces, nephews, and cousins. She was predeceased by her mother Sandra Parks, and her brother Will Parks.

A memorial service is planned for January 17th at 1pm at Gentry-Morrison Funeral home in North Lakeland.

Cindi's one-of-a-kind spirit and warmth will be deeply missed by all who knew her. Cindi left a mark on everything she touched, and her memory will serve as a beacon of love and inspiration to those whose lives she touched so profoundly.
