

Cynthia Hanas Jones

July 31, 1950 - May 27, 2024

Cynthia Hanas Jones, 73, passed away on May 27, 2024.

Born on July 31st, 1950, was the daughter of Irene Icenhower and Tom Hanas.

Cynthia was a beloved school teacher who retired in 2014 after a dedicated career spanning 34 years, 27 of which she spent nurturing the minds and hearts of kindergarten students. She passed away peacefully, surrounded by family, after a courageous battle with an illness. She now joins her beloved husband of 47 years, Benny Jones, in Heaven, who preceded her in death two years ago.

Born with a gentle spirit and a heart full of compassion, Cynthia devoted her life to the education and well-being of young children, leaving a permanent mark on countless lives. Her classroom was a place of joy, discovery, and warmth, where every child felt valued and loved.

Outside of her professional life, Cynthia was a dedicated and loving mother to her two sons, Casey (Tami) and Davey (Candice). She welcomed her daughters-in-law with open arms, treating them as her own. Known as "Nene" to her three cherished granddaughters, Zoe, Mya, and Ella, Cynthia's legacy of love and kindness will continue through them, as they brought immense joy to her life. She is also survived by her brother Richard Hanas and his wife, Susan Duda Hanas.

Throughout her life, Cynthia faced many challenges with remarkable strength and resilience. She was a beacon of love and positivity, ensuring that everyone around her felt happy and content. Her unwavering dedication to her family and students was evident in all she did, and her loving spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Rest in peace, Cynthia Jones, Mom, and Nene. Your love, kindness, and dedication will forever remain in our hearts.

“ I loved that woman. We worked together at Scott Lake Elementary for many years and she was always such a positive and loving Teacher.... She laughed at my jokes no matter how bad they were... She will truly be missed.... Thoughts and prayers are with her family at this time.
