“What a true blessing it is to have Dillard in our family, he touched so many lives and was a very generous and caring person. You never left his house without something. I will miss seeing you out on your bike and that silly laugh, but I know you are dancing now in Heaven. I love you Uncle Dillard rest in peace. <3 Crystal

“ Uncle Dillard had one of the biggest hearts I've ever known. He was so giving and knew the true meaning of family which included friends because to him they were his family too. He is going to be missed by so many as I think he touched every heart of every person he ever met. I love that man with all my heart and will cherish my memories always.

“ This my favorite picture of Dillard. He was so happy to get a new bike for his birthday, this would be his 11th bike stolen.... Rodney and family.
