“ Aunt Edith that’s what we called herwas a relative through out my life that I would see occasionaly. So when those moments happened they were a sweet time to talk to her and reminisce about things that were in the past, and wanting to know how my family was doing now. She always’s said good things, always with a smile on her face . I know how she loved to play cards with Norma and the girls. I was visiting one week end and all the usual suspects we’re happily playing their card game that night they were having fun and I could see their joy . Loved her kindness. May she be with our “Lord Jesus Christ” and all the people she loved that have gone on before her.....She will be missed by the people who loved her the most her children. May the peace of God comfort them through this time of sorrow and grief. 🕊️🌹
