“ My aunt Helen was always such a beautiful woman. My childhood memories of her that stand out the most was visiting her for vacations in Florida with my grandma and her being so hospitable. I remember so vividly how she would come home from work, all dressed in white, I believe she was a home health aide at the time, and without hesitation, she'd jump to the kitchen to prepare the most delicious meals and made sure we were good. She was always by my uncle's side, where you saw one, you saw the other and now they are together forever. Until we meet again Titi Helen

“ I met her 8 years ago at church. I was 15 at the time and she told me to sit next to her and started doing some motions that i realized was sign language. I couldn't understand her so she sort of whispered to me because she couldn't speak well. She said i was beautiful. I laughed and thanked her. We started talking a bit every church service. She would teach me sign language and i would try my best to learn on my own to communicate with her. She was a very kind person i really enjoyed her company. Anytime she was hospitalized i would visit her. I just remembered her being kind. I really cared for her but we lost touch after we moved churches. I wish i could have stayed in touch with her . May her kind soul rest in peace. Dios bendiga mucho a la familia de Elena .
