“ I remember How much you love your nieces and nephew, you took time of your busy schedule to spend time with them and take them to different places. When my daughter moved to Florida you help her always with the kids, I am forever grateful to you for that bond of love you had for your family. I know all your nephew and nieces love you and will dearly miss you. Please accept my condolences to the family, Love ❤️ Wood family

“ I will always cherish the time we spent together last February at her dad's house. I cooked, we talked, and laughed until our sides hurt. She always said titi you're so funny and I love you. Im going to miss you very much but I take comfort in knowing you're with you dad, and most of all in the loving arms of Jesus. You will forever be missed. Until we meet again my sweet niece!
