“ Our heart felt sorrow goes out to the Nichols Family. It was Charles, Charles Jr. and Ellen who warmly welcomed us when we moved to Southern Oaks and became their neighbors. I've heard the word kind to discribe her and that she truely was. She would talk about her sons with such pride and love. She made a absolutely wonderful lemon cake that my husband loved and they had come up with a new name for it!!! She truely was there for all of us from time to time with her sweet words. She will be missed by many of us. Much Love, The Heigelmann Family
