“ We still think of you and remember your ability to be calm, fun, whimsical, yet completely put together all the time. I remember looking through the I Spy books as a kid and you would help me look for the hidden pictures. Thanks for always having a story to tell, being friendly, and welcoming a conversation with anyone. Love you Granddad! You and Nana are continuing your story up above and always look out for us down below here on Earth 🤍

“ Uncle Frank,
The first time I can remember we met you were hanging from a tree limb like a monkey! Thru the years visiting you in the summer you taught me to play chess and othello. you finally let me beat you after many visits. My memories of you are of the odd elephant jokes, MADD magazine and I think it was Donald Duck comics. I will have these fond memories to take with me. Love Your sister in law,
