“ She always stood tall, she worked hard for the things she had. When her car accident tried to hold her down it was like holding a slippery eel. I wish I had half the courage she did. When they told her it was time to go, she held back the tears, straightened her jaw and said ok. Gail I will miss your courage and you desire to never give up.. I love you.

It is July 18, 2017 & I just decided to "google" Gail's name. What a sad discovery. My heart is with her family & friends. She was a one of a kind personality. She seemed to just glide above the ground when she walked by. Back in a halo, Gail! I had fun laughing with you. RIP Suzie
