Gary always said I was one of his girls. No one could possibly know what that meant to me. He treated me like his own. I lost my pictures of us dancing. We always had so much fun. I taught him how to tap dance and clogg. He was so willing to learn with that beautiful smile on his face!

Gary took me in and allowed me to live with him, Lisa and Laneah. That time in my life he taught me so many wonderful life lessons. I am so blessed to be apart of his amazing family. He instilled joy in my life and I'm so very thankful for him.
