“ I remember Henry from his days as a representative for Mutual Wholesale. He came in every week and was always positive, upbeat, and helpful. We all felt like a friend was walking in the door. He was a very kind man who shared his faith with others. I have very fond memories of Henry. I'm praying that God will comfort his family as they grieve.

“ I remember the days that Kevin and I would walk to his house after church when it was at East Main St., and have dinner with him. I will always remember Henry sitting in his chair talking sports - mostly football. He was always kind and respectful to me. Will greatly miss him! Rest in Peace my friend!
