“ Uncle Jackie told my dad to put away the dresses and tea sets when I was born-- he was right on! My memories from childhood were of a fun loving Uncle who accepted my Tomboyish tendencies and encouraged me to take on the world! You were my Godfather, too, Uncle Jackie, and I will cherish every cookout, every family event, and every new funny story you had growing up a street over. I will always love you. I now have a very special angel to guide me along my journey!
Godspeed Uncle Jackie...
Love Always,
Tammy

“ Jackie was my boss and friend at WR Grace for many years. Went to work for him in 1975! He used to give me his Gator tickets when he set in the sky boxes with Paul McDonald! He will be missed! He was a good man!
