I am so truly very sorry for the loss of this great woman. This world is less because she is no longer here. I can honestly say, and everyone will agree, Jackie is the most amazing woman I had the pleasure to meet in my lifetime. If 10% of all the women in the world could be like her, this world would be a better place. I've never me a more beautiful, kind, accepting and loving person in my life. Save my own mother, may she rest in peace. You spread so much love in this world Jackie, thank you for all that you gave to me.
