“ I have several special memories of Jan but one in particular would have to be the day I received a phone call out of the blue! As I was sitting at my piano teaching the phone rang and it was Jan. “Lorie I think I’ve found the house you’ve been dreaming of buying!” She had not forgotten even after a year all the particulars and was a one of a kind realtor! Always upbeat and positive even as she would share all she was going through and I truly admired her strength! She’s now with her husband who I also miss but they are celebrating in heaven together . What a comfort her 2 sons have in knowing they will see them again in heaven. God Bless the Bellamy family sincerely and with deepest sympathy
