My deepest condolences to you and your family. Thank you for sharing your daughter's life story with us. I didn't know her personally but as I watched her video I felt her joy and I felt her strength while dealing with lupus. I also feel you as parents dealing with your loss. I was in this place with the loss of my son in February 2016. There's nothing that can prepare you for this kind of pain. I know that prayer helps a lot also talking about her and shedding tears whenever and wherever they may fall will help. I will keep you in my prayers.
