“ Thank you to all the outpouring of Family and friends that came to honor Jeremy at his beautiful funeral. Every person that loved him (and Greyson and I) was in that chapel and the warmth and loved filled our hearts. I know in my heart that he was looking down on us from heaven and happy to see how much he was loved. The tributes we all shared was proof of the genuine, kind, gentle and loving soul he was. The days to come will be difficult but knowing he is not suffering anymore brings us peace. Jeremy we will miss you forever and always. Rest In Peace my love. I will see you again someday.

“ My favorite memory of Jeremy was one day when he came into the SUN 'n FUN office and as he approached my desk, he put his index finger to his lips, so Melissa wouldn't know he was surprising her with flowers

If only you (or any of you) actually showed up to his funeral or ever actually visit his grave. You were absent as you ALWAYS were. But thats a conversation youll have to have with god. His REAL family that loved him was there... we were all there.... You bailed. We miss him everyday and live life to the fullest and do all the things he couldnt in honor of him. I hope you all burn in hell for not showing up to honor him.

Melissa, you were so fortunate to have had this wonderful, caring man in your life. Think of the many great memories you had with him. He was just as lucky to have you in his life. His legacy will live on in your son, Greyson. Hugs and much love, Aunt Sue and Uncle Kirk.
