

Joseph Anthony Fletcher

September 28, 1977 - July 19, 2017

IN LOVING MEMORY

Joseph (Tony) Fletcher passed away at home on July 19, 2017. He was preceded in death by his father, Robert Fletcher. He is survived by his mother, Nona Fletcher; brother, Thomas Huff; niece, Amber Huff; and great niece, Harlie Cumbie. All from Lakeland.

A MILLION TIMES

A million times we've needed you.

A million times we've cried.

If love alone could have saved you,

You never would have died.

In life we loved you dearly.

In death we love you still.

In our hearts you hold a place,

No one else can ever fill.

It broke our hearts to lose you,

You did not go alone.

Part of us went with you,

The day God took you home.

“ This is my little brother Tony one time would it be six years old I was shooting the gun by the lake and I got him to shoot it. I loaded it buckshot he never shot or touch a gun again . one time I was trying to teach him how a ride a mower. You where you about 9 we had a Yazoo lawn mower the wheels in the back he took off on it and it climb up a tree he neverdrove or mowed again until he was 17 and working at Publix ..he got his driver's license ya'll know what he says he said that he would never use them but he wanted to have something that he knew that I could never have again.. he was funny and smart as hell he graduated with a3.96 average.although I used to ride you can eat with auburndale .I was always Kathleen I just want everybody to knowwho y'all should've known because I'm a piece of shit me and him were like night and day. He was 39 . never drank smoked pot or cigsnever had a girl friend he'll he never . in school he never even been to the office . but with me . I was always into something but with himthat if you got to know him . you would have loved him and just remember my brother died and I never got %o thank him and tell him I loved him God took himaway at the age of 39 he just laid down and just gave up I've never wanted to give up so bad in my life I can't I miss you Tony wish I was where you were at you were where I was at that's the way it's always been I've always been gone you've always been here I love you and miss you brother Tommy

“ Hey Tony ,well bro as you seen it weren't the same man , it was like a tomb in the trailer mom stayed in her "corner" then me then you , but you left to soon Mom's cheese i believe slid off her craker about 2 days after i found you,any other time i had anything fuck up on this ps4 the first time anything with it " it was hey Tony " remember .- from ny to la . Huug will you look at , damn huh, thats funny . Any way I'm sure you dun heard bout the forcloser right ,. Fucked me to see mom sitting in the floor with these papers , saying to her self Why ,. I was standing beside him on the porch. He said gotta get away from hell " polk co." then i fucked up , and violated probation and dont remember anything after walking outta the liquor store but i do know this, what they say i did it wasnt me ,look at what i use to be like ,and kind a still am, if i put my word on it , gold because thats all i got left .Is my word . And for the 1st. Time sense 3 / 9 / 97 . i think i m going to renigg on my word lil brother im gettin worse but i wont ask Him for nothin, till ,i figure out why god left me ,why the devil even left . Because i left them , . I've been a fuck up, sense day 1 ,but were all born with a gift . Yours was loyalty , trust , and faith " u had 3 " m y 1 is laughter and there aint been nothing 2 laugh about anymore , . You see , the world needs Your gifts ,'. Mine will just fade to black ', just like the song.

“ *We can never be separated from those we love because God leaves us with memories to hold and a love that doesn't pass away and in time we realize that our loved one lives on not only in a home beyond the Setting Sun but within our heart to stay Thank you Lord for letting us have Tony 39 years of memories
Love ya always

“ I have so many memories of your baby Nona... Bonifay, you could call Tony all day to come back up the driveway. Only way to really get him to come back was to tell him that the bogey-man was going to get him.

Tony didn't much care when we sat in Papa's blue Toyota truck & watched the Jets passing over our heads, back when you could actually sit there & watch. WAS a little exciting and scary. He'd let me know when he had had enough.

And of course, Clearwater Beach with WL and Tony, we used to have so much fun.

Nona, you are a fine & blessed Mom, thank you for sharing your Tony with us. Such a sweetheart, ALWAYS. We will always remember & love Tony...

Love y'all,

Aunt Sherryl & Wendi Lyn

Tony Tony ... From the first day I met you I loved you. You were always smiling and never complained about anything. You were always so excited about something new that you had found or saw and loved to talk about your favorite things. You brought joy to everyone's life that met you. You will be greatly missed and a part of heart will always be with you. I am glad that I got to know you but I know you are up there with your family and Oliver and my papa and not having to worry about anything anymore. We love you Tony. I know GOD had something better for you than the world did so enjoy and we will see you soon ♥

To know him was to love him

Thomas Huff - July 30, 2017 at 09:47 PM

Tony, I remember you as a little boy. Your Mom would bring you to school where I worked and we would talk. I did not know you had passed until today. Nona, I am so sorry. My heart breaks for you. Jenny C
