“ Joy was one of those people you fall in love with when you first meet. She always carried a smile and warmth within her and touched so many lives in her time here. Our hearts are broken and this family is so sad to lose this amazing and sweet person. To my sweet brother Johnny, to Sue, my sister-in-law, our nieces and nephews-Debbie, Michael, Michelle and Mark we love you and are right beside you through this. The angels are holding and protecting your beautiful daughter and sister, along with her spirit. We will all see her again someday. Love, Aunt Jeannie & Uncle Joe

“ Joy Denise Doolittle, forever a part of my family. Over 34 years ago she stole our hearts. She was grafted in to the Barnard family.... eating Japanese rice with butter (hence the Asian eyes), going to the beach with us, and amusement parks. We rode the train to visit Debbie in college, and had sleepovers in to our college years. Her dear mom, Sue was like a 2nd mother to me. I had the honor of being with Joy the day she surrendered her heart to Jesus and she stood with me as a bridesmaid on my wedding day. What a loss to everyone that was touched by her. But what a gift to have called her friend and sister. I love her so and will miss her greatly. I look forward to the day we are reunited. I Thessalonians 4:13-18

“ I only met you once, but your smile was lovely, and you were visiting Debbie during a tough time for her with the loss of one of her kitties. Yours is going home with her now - best cat mom I know 🐱❤️

“ So hard to believe this has happened. My heart breaks for my brother (Joy's dad), Sue (Joy's mom), for Michael and Mark (Joy's brothers), and Debbie and Michelle (Joy's sisters). Such a tragedy to have lost her. She will remain in our hearts and memories until we meet again. This is just our temporary home and one we must endure until we all find our resting place with our Lord. God Bless you Joy and may you Rest in Peace.
