“ Hey momma! It's Charlie-kay, there's not a day that I don't miss you! You were and are the light of my world. Momma, you were such an amazing woman, so loyal and loving! Did anything and everything you could for me or any of your kids. Your love so pure and you love hard, you did everything you could to help any and everyone you loved, even those you didn't you'd give the shirt off of your back! I love you momma, you will forever and always be the woman I look up to, an amazing mother, grandmother, wife to daddy and friend. I love you mommy and miss you too much!

“ Judy had so many hats she wore while being a part of my family. She started off being my mothers co-worker and friend, she then helped take care of my grandmother in her final days. You went to work with my oldest brother Shane. However the most important role was a loving my brother Chris.

Say hello to my grandmother, Shane and our grandson Brandon.
