“ Our warrior ~ titi Judy ~ I'll never forget the wonderful times we hung out together in Grand Rapids at church, church events, or even at your home. You were more than a titi, but like my 2nd mom. I'll forever cherish our Sunday morning brunch at Sunrise ~ you, tio, Sarah, Josh, mom, dad, bev, and anyone else who occasionally joined us. I'll cherish going to SAJE concerts and then afterwards grabbing a bite to eat at Denny's. So many wonderful memories will be forever in my heart. Rest in peace my precious titi because this is only a short nap. I'll see you "soon and very soon, we are going to see the king. Hallelujah Hallelujah we're going to see the king." ”

Already missing my favorite sister-law. Remember meeting Adelita, Secilia and Judith Dinora for the first time at the Bay Ridge 7th Adventist Church in Brooklyn, New York. I was 15 years old. She gave me my first niece Sara Elena and my first nephew Joshua Salvador. And from that day on she would call me Tio Elie. It was one heck of a ride. THANK YOU FOR THE GREAT MEMORIES and LOVE. Looking forward on seeing you once again on that great big morning and hearing that loud laughter of yours This is not a good bye but a see you soon. For your favorite and crazy brother in-law Tio Elie. 🥹🥹

“ Definitely we'll miss her! Judy was a strong woman with a upbeat personality. She loved the Pathfinder and Adventures Club, it was her passion working with kids and youth! I admired her tenacity and love for her family. I will never forget when we had a heart to heart conversation. She was genuine and direct....a straightforward person, which I loved about her! Always smiling, and laughing. Our thoughts and prayers to her family and I know we will see her when Jesus comes. Un fuerte abrazo con todo nuestro amor a toda la familia. ❤️ 🤗 ~ With love, Nieves-Sauri Family

*Jesús resucitado está en el mundo hoy.
Los hombres no lo creen. más yo seguro estoy.
Su tierna mano siento y puedo oír su voz,

Coro:

*Jesús, Jesús mi Cristo vive hoy.
Hablándome, mirándome, conmigo va el Señor.
Jesús, Jesús, imparte salvación.
Contento voy, pues suyo soy: ganó mi corazón.*

2

*Por dondequiera miro, lo puedo contemplar.
Y si la angustia llena mi alma de pesar,
yo sé que Cristo vive y al fin me llevará
al a mansión del cielo, donde Él está.*

3

*¡Alégrate, cristiano! Tu voz levanta ya
y canta aleluya al Padre Celestial.
Nos trajo esperanza de eterna salvación, pues en Su Hijo amado hay redención.*

“ Que hermosas promesas nos deja el Señor para este momento y en ellas confiaba Judith y en ellas nos aferramos nosotros. Por eso, nos veremos junto al río, más allá del sol donde su nombre será llamado y Judith responderá. Gloria A Dios, ALELUYA. Esto sera pronto Fam. CRUZ.

“ Our condolences to Sal and family. We recall Judy from her younger years in Michigan. She was a happy person and always had a smile. She took her joy and her smile wherever she went. She is now peacefully sleepy until Jesus returns. May the Lord bring comfort to the entire family.

“ I will never forget her. She had so much faith in me that before she left the accounts receivable department at Amway. She recommended me and told her boss that if I didn't do my job well that she would come back to the accounts receivable department. No she didn't have to come back, but I do miss her.

“ My deepest condolences for the family. My rememberance of Judy is that she always had a smile on her face. I remember going to the Seventh Day Adventist church in Grand Rapids, Michigan and seeing her show so much positivity. She was a very kind person. RIP
