“ I love you Gracie! Thank you for everything you you taught me over the years. Thank you for always being kind, motherly, and welcoming me in to your home. Thank you for all your great advice, amazing chicken and rice, and listening ear when I needed one. You were always a volunteer, not a victim. Even when you were in pain, you never complained. You were always an inspiration, not just in your battle over cancer but as a warrior for Christ. Thank you for being such a positive role model, not just to me, but to Azlan. You were a very special "grandparent" to her. Michael thought the world of You too. It didn't take him long to love you too. You had a unique light about you that was hard not to love. We will think of you often and never forget your welcoming hugs, contagious laugh, and heart full of God's love! We love you very much!! Although our bodies may be far apart, you'll always be in our hearts! We will be listening for those windchimes so we know when you're saying hello. We love you. Forever rest in peace.
