“ I will forever remember you sitting on that bike in my front yard, telling me your a goat lol. All I could say was your not a goat your a jackass for riding that bike. We both laughed. My daughters family met you that day and loves you, sadly you and her spoke about that bike as she just lost her brother, my daughters uncle so we know the hurt and pain. She thought you were so handsome and she prayed for you that day. We had a good time, a lot of laughs and good talks. The boys will forever think of you. My son says ma, we were just on the back porch talking and chopping it up. As I explained to them, God has last say. Believe in Christ for he will get you through. There are no words and not enough flowers to endure the pain you all are feeling. I understand the pain and I pray for you all. May God be with you on this day. And forever. No matter what has happened with Kyle and us, will never take the time we shared though. I will forever think of you when I hear a motorcycle. Your smile was beautiful and your heart was also. Jus mixed up somewhere but a dang good heart. Love forever.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. I know this is a very difficult time. It may seem at times that you feel like the sadness will never go away. I don't think it ever goes away. However, I can tell you though it may take a long while, take solace in the fact that the day will eventually come when you can put aside all the bad and laugh about the silly things he did and said, talk about him without crying and remember all the good memories he left you with. Kyle will be missed by all who loved him. May Peace Be With You. ❤️
