“ I know her because she was my former neighbor on Fillmore Street in Rochester, NY. Sometimes she babysat me when I was a little boy. She really was such a nice and sweet lady. I will never forget how beautiful her smile was. I wish I could have seen her sooner before her family moved down to Florida in 1975, but it was too late. My prayers and thoughts always are and will be with her for the rest of my life. I will inform my sister Anita soon because Ravonna used to be my sister Anita's best friend (I will try to have Ravonna and Anita to get reunited again soon... SMILE!!! I am sure Laura would love that). I am sure she must be very happy in Heaven to associate with her family members and neighbors and friends like my parents. I am sure I will meet her up in Heaven many years later. I always and will always think of and miss her so much.
