“ To the family of Linda, I remember your mother so very fondly. She was the dental hygienist for our family, Charles, Doris and Debbie English Regan. She always had a smile and made me feel like family. She always talked of her family and it was so very evident of the love she had for you all. The last time I saw her was in 2011 when she attended my father's funeral. I was so touched that she remembered us and she was there! I will always remember her. I hope you find some comfort in knowing how much she loved you and that you WILL see her again. "When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be"! My sincerely sympathy, Debbie English Regan and family.
