“ I was kind of an "honorary" sister---because the baby sister, Arlin, is one of my besties, and from the time we were 13 I spent so many nights and days with the family. At the time Peggy lived in Pennsylvania and would come down to Fla. for visits. It was always fun to see her and to have the delicious dinners that came from Mrs. Higginbotham's kitchen when she and Peggy would bake their delicious biscuits and everything that went with them. Peggy bought me my first pair of high heels-black patent leather-one pair for Arlin and one pair for me! She showed such kindness. So of course I love her as I do all the family. They are a special group of girls and their families too. Great memories! I know you are having a great time in heaven, Peggy and we will see you when we leave this life. Love to the family, Gail McNeal
