“ My sweet Aunt Marie . When I think back to our childhood days I remember waffles at breakfast!! Riding the horse . The boys milking a cow !!! Strawberries!! But after I was grown her and uncle Will came spent the weekend several times with us in Okeechobee. Mitchell was telling her one day when they were over that a circus in town lost an elephant. People were calling in all over town to tell where they seen it. A friend borrowed our 4-10 to help find him. Aunt Marie piped up with "people this is an elephant" !! "Get the 90-90 !!!" She was always so funny!! Love my family much ! Prayers for all !!!! She will be missed by many !!!
