“ I miss you dearly mom. Until we meet again, the memory of your smile, that strength in your eyes, and the way you'd jokingly tell me to shut up when I'd crack a joke about you, your tender, ever caring heart for your offspring,,,,,,,,, all these will keep me in the fight. Mom, I'm not ashamed to say, at 52 years old, I still need you. You've saved me more than once. I take great comfort in knowing that you'll be around to check on me from time to time. I'll be looking for you mommy. Until then, enjoy your reunion, and that time we all look forward to,,,, Holding the hand of Christ Jesus. I love you so much mom.

“ *If I could have picked a mother-in-law, I could not have done any better than you.
You were a great mother, awesome grandmother, and had the best potato soup recipe.
I love you and will miss you. Love, Ann*
