“ Marjorie known as “Granny” to my kids Kaelyn and Hayden. I’ll always remember her kind and loving heart. We met when Connie and I were neighbors in Ocala. We hadn’t seen her in a while until Marissa’s wedding last September. Granny got to meet my granddaughter Kinsley for the first time. She was only 2 weeks old. I remember her saying anytime you want to leave her with me you can. This is a fond memory I’ll always hold close to my heart. Her love for her family was inseparable. You will be missed. Love you, Lisa , Kaelyn and Hayden Moak

“ Every morning has a new beginning, a new Hope, a new blessing; we don't have to take this day all at once, rather one step, one breath, one moment at a time. This is the hardest time of my Life. I've been placed in a situation that I did not ask for. I have experienced so many hardships I never thought I would have seen things that I could not have ever imagined but losing my mom is almost unbearable. It is only through the grace and mercy of God that I can even breathe. My mom was a miracle worker; growing up we had very little to nothing but somehow mom always pull things together, we always had clean clothes, I remember her washing them by hand With a wash tub and rubbing board and not once do I remember her complaining. I remember standing with her in the commodity line to get food and my mom the miracle worker would turn into a master chef, she would turn that stuff into a meal fit for a feast. She was a nurse, teacher, counselor, Cook and friend and best of all were her smiles and hugs. We may not have had much as far as worldly things but mom made sure we had everything we needed even if it meant she went without. She never stop worrying about us and she never stop praying for us no matter how many times we would break her heart, she loved us unconditionally. Thank you mom for everything and I'm sorry for all the times you were hurt.
I love you always
Your Son
Tim

“ My mother Marjorie was my best friend. My life has been a much better place to have had the wonderful pleasure of her. I knew I was kept from a lot of harm just from her mighty prayers. Mom bought me a stuff bunny recently when I had surgery and I now sleep with it. It reminds me of her sweet spirit. Mom you're my best friend and I miss you horribly but I am awaiting that wonderful day when we reunite. Until then I'll keep your faith, smiles, kindness, tenderness, strength, laughter, ,giving heart, peace and endurance, living on in me.I love you mommy, my lovey, my forever best friend!!! You daughter Connie
