“ Beth, it was a surprise to hear of the loss of your dad. Marvin, and I spent lots of time working together at SNF as well as projects at our home. I loved Marvin as I did my dad and he leaves an empty spot in my heart. May he join Muriel and see everlasting times together. I love you buddy and miss you. Don Huie

“ Marvin loved his faith, family, friends and synagogue. He was happiest when he could give of his time and talents to others. He loved life, inspired all those around him and will be with us always.

“ The fact that Marvin is not here seems impossible. He was always here. He was everywhere. I will take comfort in the fact that he will always be here in spirit.

“ For someone who made our world a brighter, safer and more functional place: Marvin prayed with his heart and his hands. Whether it was climbing the roof or trouble shooting electrical & A/C equipment at Temple .... he has now accepted a loftier position commensurate with his mitzvot-filled resume. While Hashem alone knows his next gig, rest assured his expertise will inspire and effect the change in this world that he wished to see. Thank you for the example you continue to be to us. - Debbie & Steve Herman

Marvin always made my husband and I feel welcome when we first came to the Temple. His memory will forever be a blessing!

Being in Marvin's company was always an experience and a pleasure. I am so happy to count him as a friend and closest thing to a relative that one could have. He spent many Rosh Hashanah and Passover meals at my dinner table. I spent much time with him these past few months and I am grateful for that. 99 years never looked so good as it did on him, and it is an inspiration for those of us heading in that direction. The day before he passed I asked him if there was any line of work he would have liked to do and he said exactly what he did. I feel like he felt that way about most everything. Marvin, when I see a cardinal in the tree outside my dining room window, I will know it is you. Rest in peace and your memory will truly be a blessing
