“ Her smile! Susie and I would do anything for Mother's smile. She lit up the world. She loved to make others smile or, better, to laugh. She was a natural clown and loved taking center stage. The only way she was comfortable in a crowd was to be the center of its attention.

“ Sharon and family,

We extend our sincere sympathy on the passing of your Mother. We will always remember her keeping everything swept up, including Foxwood Blvd.

That memory of her sweeping the street in front of her house brings me smiles. Thank you.

My prayers are with the family during this hard time. Please let me share one of the good times with you. I was riding with Mary Belle around our lake and when I went to drop her off at her house--she told me that she was coming to my house the next morning for coffee and she was bringing doughnuts. The next morning at 7:30, she knocked on my neighbors door and when he told her that I did not live there--she said "damn it" handed him the doughnuts and went home.

That sounds just like her, Patricia! Thank you for sharing another entertaining moment with my own family's version of I love Lucy!
