“Mary was my father James B Norman wife for 19 years. Sadly we were not allowed to be included in her family. Legally Mary S. Norman was my step mother, however she never wanted any of us children. It is so sad that my father was NEVER mentioned as her preceding husband. WE were never mentioned as well. It is as if Mary's 19 year marriage to her father never existed. WE never existed in Mary's world because the Norman children were not good enough. We all got kicked to the curb!
RIP Mary”

“ Ms. Norman was a beautiful lady inside and out. She was feisty when she found it necessary and we were usually able to find something to get a big belly laugh about during my therapy visits. I admired her willingness to try anything to get stronger so that she would be able to get out of bed with the goal of being able to spend time with her family she loved so much. I am so happy to have known her, even for a short time. She has certainly earned her wings in heaven. RIP Ms. Norman.

“ I was saddened to find that Mary had passed away. Having known her and her family for almost fifty years I know what a wonderful lady she was. I Hope that you all will find many blessings in the memories you have created together and these will bring joy and comfort in the years ahead. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.
