“ I met Michelle many years ago, but, never really got to know the family. Mike also knew Michelle and knew the family though along with his brother Jeff. One time many years ago when Mike and I started dating, I remember riding a motorcycle to the corner store at that time to get gas and we were not wearing helmets, when, they were required by law.

Max, went up to Mike and said, you know you should be wearing a helmet boy, don't you? Of course, the reply was "yes sir" Mike told me that was Michelle's Dad and we just laughed so hard!

We have been involved with Michelle and her boys since day one and this has gave us more of a opportunity to become privileged to be involved with all the family and have enjoyed the kindness that always has been given.

Our family gives the deepest sympathy to all aspects of the family and prays that all the good memories help you get through the hardest times!
