PASQUALE PETER SCAPELLATI

July 11, 1927 — December 2, 2020

A Celebration of a life well lived

Tuesday, December 8, 2020

Pasquale Peter Scapellati passed on December 2, 2020 in Davenport, FL. He was a good man who loved his wife dearly and wished only that she be cared for in his final hours. He survived the Great Depression and served his country in the U.S. Army, served his community of Deer Park, NY as a volunteer fireman, and served his family as “capo di tutti i capi”...He lived life “his way”, as one of his favorites, Frank Sinatra, would say. May his playful and strong-willed spirit remain with each of us eternally, in each moment we remember his zeal for life, his love for his family, and his self-reliant outlook.

Pasquale is survived by his devoted wife of 71 years, Mary, his loving children, Phyllis & Richard Sawyer, Gregory & Donna Scapellati, Carol & James DeAngelo, his adoring grandchildren, Rick & Casey Sawyer, Bryan & Julie Sawyer, Christopher Scapellati, Stephanie Scapellati & Stephanie DeGennaro, Blaise DeAngelo, Michelle & Dan Lamardo and RoseMarie DeAngelo, and his joyful great grandchildren, Brady, Olivia, Alexis, Dylan, Ella, and Kyle Sawyer.

May his memory be a blessing.

“I loved you Scap.... My way! You and Mary meant more to me than you'll ever know. I'm sorry I walked away.. May God know my reason and forgive me. I hope to see you in heaven. You were straight up and real and a true gentleman who honored and loved your wife. I was honored to be your caregiver..
