“Dad was a caring, understanding and challenging father. He was always there to teach us the little things in life how to play ball, ride a bike or ice skate, how to deal with the many challenges of life. He would take us on job sites where we learned construction . He exposed us to the life skills that would make men out of young boys. He taught us a work ethic that would follow me through out my career both in the military and private sector. My dad was a very special man and I will dearly miss him. He was liked and respected by everyone who knew him.

Your loving son,

Michael L. Coffin, 4 Dec

“Ralph was such a kind, hard working, intelligent man who loved my sister & was like a second father to me. He helped me several times & was also a big help to our parents. I'm sending prayers to his sons, Garry & Mike. To my sister, stay strong - God's got you in your time of need & we all love you so much. I'm sorry I can't be there but you know I'm thinking about you always. Ralphie, may you R.I.P.
