“ I find this so disrespectful...for his family number one to have condoned his behavior all these years of not acknowledging his real children...one final slap in the face by not even acknowledging them in his obit....he has 7 biological children that he erased from his life as if we don't exist....but we do...and we have all survived, thrived and have children and grandchildren that we all love and cherish and would do anything for them...we didn't learn that from Jerry Clairmore..we learned that from our mother Dorene Gilbert Swartwout who God rest her soul never bad mouthed this man to any of us because her hope was that someday he would contact us and she wanted us to be opened to that..of course that never happened...so am I sad not at all...mad because of the lack of respect displayed by him for all these years and his (family) yes. Me and my brothers and sisters deserved so much more than what we got
