“ He will be greatly missed. Such a kind and gentle spirit. Always a smile and generous welcome at the church door. I loved talking to Dick about his plants and seeing them, and getting his wise advice about mine.

Rest in peace, my beloved father.

My father, you were always a fighter. You always fought for your family, for your dreams, and I saw how you fought for your life. You fought as far as your strength allowed, you never gave up on life. Like a good warrior, you accepted that it was time to end the war, because we cannot defy fate. You deserved your trophy and your rest.

We are very proud of you, my beloved father. You are gone, but you leave behind an example of life, determination, and courage. You will always be present in our lives; your love will unite and guide us forever. Thank you for dedicating part of your life to us, thank you for always being a wonderful father and friend.

Rest in peace, my father, it is time to rest beside God. We are here at peace and seeking comfort in the love you left us. We will love you forever.
