I was so saddened to hear of Richard's loss. He was such a positive person and is greatly missed. I knew Richard and Hilary through Roman who was friends with my grandson Carter. Richard and Hilary had just moved in across the street from me, and the boys were looking forward to playing together this summer. The pain and sorrow for his sons and wife is unfathomable, and I pray that God will watch over and bless the families he left behind.

Richard was a big part of our group of friends I high school. He always laughing, smiling, and having a good time. His family must be devastated. My sincere condolences.
