“ I was just messaging an old friend on Facebook sharing good times of my high school past and told her I had been trying to find Jamie a couple years ago as I had moved away years ago, but didn't see any info online and couldn't remember the street name his family homes were at. She tried Google while we were chatting and found this. I'm so sad to see this. Jamie was a real genuine great person and a total sweetheart. He and I met in 1983 and had many fun times riding his motorcycle, partying at his house playing pool, grandmas house, the lake house, and just hanging out enjoying life. He even took me to my senior prom when my boyfriend and I had broken up. He had a heart of gold and would do anything for anyone giving the shirt off his back. His grandma was awesome too. I felt right at home there. I have so many fond memories of the past with Jamie. This photo looks exactly like him when I knew him. It breaks my heart. I see he had two children so I hope he had some joy in his life. I'm unsure of your relation with him before he died, but please know your dad was an awesome man in his younger years. I hope to see him again in Heaven some day. RIP Jamie. Loved you man. Thoughts and prayers to his family.
